License Recognition Application

The New Mexico Real Estate Commission is authorized by statute and rule to enter into written license recognition agreements with other states and jurisdictions. These agreements provide that a licensee with a current license in a license recognition state can be licensed in New Mexico without the requirement for additional education or examination, provided that the other state or jurisdiction extends the same opportunity to New Mexico applicants seeking licensure in their jurisdiction.

New Mexico has such written licensure recognition agreements with Louisiana, Massachusetts, and Georgia. Those who qualify are eligible for licensure in New Mexico without having to take the licensure examination. The State of New Mexico accepts the prelicensing educational requirements from those states. Applicants must be current with all aspects of their current state’s licensure requirements and can be either active or inactive status. In other words, to be eligible the applicant’s license in the recognition agreement state must not have expired.

Applicants wishing to apply for a New Mexico real estate license under the license recognition program, must submit a completed copy of the enclosed application and:

- An original certified certificate of license history(s) from all the jurisdiction(s) in which the applicant is currently or has been previously licensed.

- A certificate of current errors and omissions (E&O) insurance coverage from Rice Insurance Services, New Mexico’s Contract insurance program manager, or another carrier. Rice can be contacted toll free at 1-800-637-7319, or on line at http://www.risceo.com. Applicants should please review Part 5 of the Commission Rules, Errors and Omissions Insurance, accessible at www.rld.state.nm.us//boards/Real_Estate_Commission.aspx, Law and Rules, for E&O coverage requirements.

- Fingerprinting Requirements

- A $270 fee for a three-year license.

By virtue of applying for a New Mexico real estate license under the license recognition program, the applicant is attesting that he/she has read and agrees to comply with the New Mexico Real Estate License Law and the Real Estate Commission Rules, and further agrees to cooperate with any investigation initiated against the applicant by the New Mexico Real Estate Commission.
All questions regarding the license recognition program or any aspect of the license application process, please call Thomas Baca, Education Administrator for the New Mexico Real Estate Commission, at (505) 222-9825 or Roxanne Romo, License Administrator, at (505) 222-9826.

Applicants must apply for licensure with the Commission by mailing this completed License Application Form, licensure fee, and all required documentation outlined in the application as attached. All questions about licensure information should be directed to:

All persons applying for a New Mexico real estate broker’s license must submit to the New Mexico Department of Public Safety two completed fingerprint cards, a completed company or law enforcement agency Fingerprint Certification Form, and a check or money order for $44 payable to the New Mexico Department of Public Safety. A fingerprinting instruction sheet (titled New Mexico Real Commission Broker Fingerprinting Program Begins January 1, 2012) and a Fingerprint Certification Form are found at page 18 and 19. Please see the Real Estate Commission web site at www.rld.state.nm.us/boards/real_estate_commission.aspx for a statewide list of public and private providers of fingerprinting services. Fingerprint cards may be obtained from the New Mexico Real Estate Commission by contacting Commission Investigator Lyn Carter at Lyn.Carter@state.nm.us or call (505) 222-9881.

License applicants must provide proof of errors and omissions insurance to the Commission with their license application packet.

All active real estate Brokers are required to have errors and omission insurance. Licensees may obtain insurance from the Real Estate Commission’s contract insurance carrier, Rice Insurance Services, or from another carrier provided the carrier certifies to the Commission that their coverage is equivalent to the contract program. Enrollment information may be obtained from the Commission office or from Rice Insurance Services by calling 800.637.7319.

License applicants who intend to work for a brokerage that has a group insurance policy with an insurance company other than Rice Insurance Service should ask their Qualifying Broker to provide them with a certificate of insurance verifying current coverage, and verifying that the coverage being provided is equivalent to the coverage being provided by the Commission’s contract insurance carrier as required under Part 5 of the Commission Rules.

Application Instructions

If you answered “Yes” to any one of the first five questions in Section B of this application, locate the number(s) you answered “Yes” to below and determine supporting documentation that should accompany your application for licensure.

1. Prepare and send a written account explaining the details of the complaint and its resolution.
2. Provide a letter from the licensing agency detailing the events that caused action to be taken against your license, including dates and locations and any subsequent reinstatement of your license.
3. Provide the following documentation:
   a. A copy of the judgment and sentence.
   b. A written account of your part in the alleged offense and its current status.
   c. If applicable, a letter from your parole officer detailing your degree of rehabilitation.
4. Submit the following documentation:
   a. Copies of all relevant civil complaints in which you have been named as a defendant.
   b. Copies of the final dispositions of subject lawsuits (if available), or a written explanation of the current status of complaint(s) against you.
5. See the fingerprinting instruction sheet and Fingerprint Certification Form on pages 18 and 19.

If you answered “No” to questions seven or eight of this application, locate the number(s) you answered “No” to below for additional information.

6. Request from the state(s)/jurisdiction(s) (other than New Mexico) in which you currently or previously practiced, a certified license history which is to be included with this information when you submit your New Mexico Real Estate Broker License Application packet.
7. All active real estate Associate Brokers and Qualifying Brokers are required to have errors and omissions insurance meeting the requirements of part 5 of the Real Estate Commission Rules and Regulations. Insurance may be obtained through the Commission’s contract insurance carrier, Rice Insurance Services, or another insurance carrier. Enrollment forms and other information may be obtained from the Commission office, the Commission Web site at www.rld.state.nm.us/boards/real_estate_commission.aspx or from Rice Insurance Services at 800.637.7319.
8. If you answered “No” to question 8, you are not eligible for licensure. You must be a legal resident of the United States to qualify for a real estate broker’s license.

AFFIDAVIT OF CHARACTER: You must have the Affidavit of Character section below completed by two individuals or include character reference letters from two individuals who own property in the county in which you reside or do business.

Affidavit of Character

In signing this application, I affirm to the best of my knowledge and belief that the individual named on this form is of good moral character and is honest and trustworthy. I further certify that I am a property owner in the county of residence or place of business of the individual named herein.

New Mexico Real Estate Commission
Broker Fingerprinting Program

Effective January 1, 2012, applicants for licensure by the New Mexico Real Estate Commission and applicants for license renewal will be required to submit to a statewide and national criminal background check by submitting two completed fingerprint cards and supporting documentation to the New Mexico Department of Public Safety (DPS).

The fingerprinting requirement was enacted by the 2011 state legislature at the request of the Real Estate Commission as a public protection measure and to ensure that in-state and out-of-state license applicants are treated equally in the criminal background check process.

The criminal history record includes information concerning a person’s arrests, indictments or other formal criminal charges and any dispositions thereof, including convictions, dismissals, acquittals, sentencing, and correctional supervision.

The Real Estate Commission will provide the fingerprint cards and the Fingerprint Certification Form. License applicants will be required to take the cards and the Fingerprint Certification Form for fingerprinting to a public law enforcement official, a private fingerprinting company, the New Mexico DPS, or a law enforcement agency or private company in the broker’s state of residence, if other than New Mexico. Public law enforcement agencies include state police, county sheriffs, and municipal, campus, military, and tribal police.

In the Albuquerque metropolitan area, the only municipal law enforcement agency that provides fingerprinting services is the Rio Rancho Police Department, located at 500 Quantum Road, one block south of Northern Boulevard on State Road 528. The department does fingerprinting Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and charges $10 per card. For more information, call the department at (505) 891-5948 or check the City of Rio Rancho web site. Outside of Albuquerque, please check with your local law enforcement agencies to determine if they provide fingerprinting services.

The DPS office in Santa Fe, located at 4491 Cerrillos Road, will do fingerprinting Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. for $9 for two cards. If DPS personnel do your fingerprinting, please be sure to tell them the cards are for a nationwide criminal background check and leave the cards with DPS.

There are a number of private fingerprinting companies in the Albuquerque area and statewide with a wide variety of pricing, but $15-25 for two cards is a typical price. Please see the enclosed flier for information on how to access a list of public agencies and private companies that provide fingerprinting services.

It is advisable to telephone law enforcement agencies or private companies prior to going to their offices to confirm prices, office hours, and days and hours when fingerprinting services are available.

The applicant is responsible for paying the fee to the fingerprinting company or agency, and for mailing two completed fingerprint cards, a copy of the Fingerprint Certification Form completed by the fingerprinting company or agency, and a check or money order for $44.00 payable to DPS in the envelope addressed to DPS provided by the Commission in the new license or license renewal packet. The applicant should retain a copy of the completed Fingerprint Certification Form for inclusion with the license application or license renewal application that is returned to the Commission.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) will mail the report of background investigation to the Real Estate Commission for processing. It can take 4-6 weeks for the Commission to receive a background report from the FBI, but neither an initial license application nor a license renewal application will be delayed pending receipt of the FBI report. If the FBI report reveals a felony conviction, the Commission may initiate an investigation that could lead to disciplinary action, up to and including license revocation.

Along with your other license renewal paperwork, please submit to the Commission a copy of the Fingerprint Certification Form completed by the fingerprint provider. If the DPS office in Santa Fe does your fingerprinting, please ask them to complete the Fingerprint Certification Form and give you a copy.

The Commission will not issue a new license prior to the completion of the background check process, but license renewals will not be delayed pending completion of the process.
The following must be mailed to the DPS office in Santa Fe in the envelope addressed to DPS provided by the Commission:

- Two (2) completed fingerprint cards.
- One Fingerprint Certification Form completed by the fingerprint provider.
- A check or money order in the amount of $44 payable to the New Mexico Department of Public Safety.

Please do not fold the envelope containing the fingerprint cards. Folded or otherwise damaged cards will be returned to the applicant, causing a delay in processing. For any further information about the fingerprinting program, please telephone Commission Investigator Lyn Carter at (505) 222-9881.
