Former Santa Fe Home Builder Indicted on Embezzlement & Fraud Charges

SANTA FE: A Santa Fe grand jury on Tuesday returned an indictment against William "Kal" Kalinowski, a former Santa Fe home builder, on 10 counts of embezzlement and fraud over $20,000.

A criminal summons has been issued ordering Kalinowski, 68, who now lives in Massachusetts, to appear in the First Judicial District Court in Santa Fe for an arraignment on October 7, 2013 at 10 a.m.

Each count against Kalinowski is a second-degree felony carrying a maximum penalty of nine years in prison. In addition to a potential prison sentence, Kalinowski could also be ordered to pay restitution, fines and costs.

The case is being handled by the Regulation and Licensing Department's Special Prosecutor Scott Mullins under the jurisdiction of First Judicial District Attorney Angela "Spence" Pacheco.
