PUBLIC NOTICE

BOARD OF BARBERS AND COSMETOLOGISTS

NOTICE REGARDING CLOSURE OF NON- ESSENTIAL BUSINESSES ISSUED ON MARCH 23, 2020

The purpose of the Department of Health's March 23, 2020 Order "Closing all Business and Non-Profit Entities Except for those Deemed Essential," was to require all New Mexicans to stay home in the interest of public health and safety. There are no provisions in the Board of Barbers and Cosmetologists rules or statutes that allow a licensee to work from home or to work outside of their licensed establishment without a special event permit. The Regulation and Licensing Department and the Board of Barbers and Cosmetologists cannot provide legal advice. If you are in need of interpretation of how the Order applies to your business or to your individual licensure, please seek advice from independent legal counsel.

Any requests to the Board must be submitted in writing via the procedures outlined in the public notice at the following Internet link:
