SALAZAR ANNOUNCES DEPUTY SUPERINTENDENT

Claudia Armijo
Deputy Superintendent

SANTA FE - New Mexico Regulation and Licensing Department Superintendent Marguerite Salazar announced today that Claudia Armijo Esq., has been named Deputy Superintendent of the Regulation and Licensing Department. Armijo previously served as Deputy General Counsel for the Regulation and Licensing Department, where she supervised the Legal Bureau, which provides legal services to the Office of the Superintendent, the agency's six Divisions, the Human Resources Bureau and Information Technology Bureau.

Daniel Rubin
General Counsel

"With her experience and expertise, I am excited and confident in her ability in fulfilling our mission to protect consumers, while providing businesses a platform to thrive" stated Salazar.

Prior to joining the Regulation and Licensing Department, Armijo worked for several years at the New Mexico Legislative Council Service, where she drafted legislation and was a lead attorney for various legislative interim committees. Armijo has served on the board of her local little league, homeowners association and as a trustee for the Public Employees Retirement Association. She received an undergraduate degree in Business and Management from the University of Redlands and was awarded a Juris Doctorate from the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law in 1999. Her legal career has centered on public service since she moved to New Mexico in 1998 and attended her final year of law school as a visiting student at the University of New Mexico, School of Law.

"I welcome the opportunity to provide an environment that promotes courteous, responsive, quality services to the citizens of New Mexico" Armijo said.
