REGULATION AND LICENSING DEPARTMENT
BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS DIVISION
PRIVATE INVESTIGATIONS ADVISORY BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF:

CASE No. PI-2014-021

HENRY CADENA/AAA SECURITY,

Respondent.

SUPERINTENDENT'S FINAL ORDER

THIS MATTER came before Chris Martinez, Hearing Officer, for a hearing on the merits on August 4, 2016, and the Hearing Officer having filed a Hearing Officer's Report containing findings of fact and recommendations on December 27, 2016; and the Superintendent, being otherwise fully apprised, accepts the Hearing Officer's Report in its entirety and finds that Respondent Henry Cadena/AAA Security's actions have resulted in violations of the Private Investigations Act.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. Respondent shall pay a fine of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), to the board within thirty (30) days of the date this Final Order is signed; and
2. Respondent shall take four hours of continuing education from an approved source, not to be counted toward renewal of his license, within sixty (60) days of the date this Final Order is signed
3. Failure to comply with the terms of this Order may result in further disciplinary action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

BEFORE THE NEW MEXICO PRIVATE INVESTIGATIONS ADVISORY BOARD

IN THE MATTER OF:

Case No(s). 2014-021

HENRY CADENA/AAA SECURITY,
License No. 1421,

Respondents.

NOTICE OF CONTEMPLATED ACTION

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the New Mexico Regulation and Licensing Department (“Department”) has sufficient evidence which, if not rebutted or satisfactorily explained at a formal hearing, will justify the Department’s imposing a civil penalty against Henry Cadena/AAA Security (“Cadena”), which could total up to one thousand dollars ($1,000). See NMSA 1978, § 61-27B-27(B)(1).

APPLICABLE LAW

The Department has the authority to enforce and administer the Private Investigations Act (“the Act”), NMSA 1978, Sections 61-27B-1 to -36, and to adopt rules regarding private patrol companies. See NMSA 1978, § 61-27B-5. The Private Investigations Advisory Board (“the Board”) is authorized, to “assist the department...as requested by the superintendent [of the department] or [as] provided for in rules of the department.” NMSA 1978, § 61-27B-6(B).

“It is unlawful for an individual to act as a private patrol operator,...or private patrol operations manager... unless the individual is licensed by the department pursuant” to the Act. See NMSA 1978, § 61-27B-3. “It is unlawful for an individual to...(C) continue to act as a...private patrol operator...or private patrol manager if the individual’s license issued...has expired”). Id. Also, “[a] licensee or registrant with an expired license or registration shall not perform an activity for which a license or registration is required pursuant to the Act until the license or registration has been renewed or reinstated.” Id., Section 61-27B-21(B).

The Department is authorized to impose “a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation” of the Act. See NMSA 1978, § 61-27B-27(B)(1), (emphasis added). Under the Act, “A private patrol company is liable for the conduct of the company’s employees, including the conduct of its private patrol operations manager.” Id., at (E).

Also, if a hearing is requested, “[l]icensees shall bear all costs of disciplinary proceedings unless they are excused by the board from paying all or part of the fees or if they prevail at the hearing....” NMSA 1978, 61-1-4(G).

NATURE OF THE EVIDENCE AGAINST THE RESPONDENT

On December 11, 2014, Amos Padilla filed a complaint against Henry Cadena/AAA Security, License No. 1421, because a license check in the Department’s database indicated that Mr. Cadena’s private patrol operator license had expired. Mr. Cadena’s license expired on February 28, 2014, about ten months before Mr. Padilla inquired about the status of the license.

On January 5, 2015, Mr. Cadena filed an application to renew his private patrol operator license. Thus, from February 28, 2014 until the renewal was issued sometime in 2015, for approximately a year, Mr. Cadena operated as a private patrol operator with an expired license. Mr. Cadena responded when he was notified about the complaint. In his response, Mr. Cadena admitted that his license had not been renewed, claiming that “a clerical error” was the cause.

RIGHTS OF THE RESPONDENT

You have a right to request a formal hearing in this matter. In order to exercise that right, you must respond to this Notice of Contemplated Action with a request for a hearing within twenty (20) days of the service of this Notice. NMSA 1978, Section 61-27B-27(A). The Uniform Licensing Act (“ULA”), NMSA 1978, Sections 61-1-1 to -34, governs the procedures for conducting this hearing to the extent that those procedures do not conflict with the Act. See NMSA 1978, § 61-27B-27(A). As such, the hearing request must be made in writing, sent to the Board by certified receipt requested letter to the address provided below. See NMSA 1978, § 61-1-4(B). Failure to respond in this prescribed manner (requesting a hearing) will result in the Board taking the contemplated action; and, such action shall be final, without any opportunity to appeal for judicial review. Please send any request for a formal hearing to:

John Francis, Board Administrator
Private Investigations Advisory Board
P.O. Box 25101
Santa Fe, NM 87504
(505) 476-4634

If that hearing is requested, it will be conducted in accordance with ULA, to the extent that those procedures do not conflict with the Act. See Section 61-27B-27. With respect to any formal hearing, as the respondent you have the following rights under NMSA 1978, Section 61-1-8:

- A. A person entitled to be heard under the Uniform Licensing Act shall have the right to be represented by counsel or by a licensed member of his own profession or occupation, or both; to present all relevant evidence by means of witnesses and books, papers, documents and other evidence; to examine all opposing witnesses who appear on any matter relevant to the issues; and to have subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum issued as of right prior to the commencement of the hearing to compel discovery and the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books, papers, documents and other evidence upon making written request therefor to the board or hearing officer. The issuance of such subpoenas after the commencement of the hearing rests in the discretion of the board or the hearing officer. All notices issued pursuant to Section 61-1-4 NMSA 1978 shall contain a statement of these rights.
- B. Upon written request to another party, any party is entitled to: (1) obtain the names and addresses of witnesses who will or may be called by the other party to testify at the hearing; and (2) inspect and copy any documents or items which the other party will or may introduce in evidence at the hearing. The party to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within ten days after the mailing or delivery of the request. No request shall be made less than fifteen days before the hearing.

- C. Any party may take depositions after service of notice in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts. Depositions may be used as in proceedings governed by those rules.

Dated on this th 5 day of October, 2015.
