RUBIN NAMED GENERAL COUNSEL FOR REGULATION AND LICENSING DEPARTMENT

SANTA FE – New Mexico Regulation and Licensing Superintendent Marguerite Salazar has named Daniel Rubin as General Counsel for the Department.

As general counsel, Daniel supervises and manages the Regulation and Licensing Departments Legal Bureau, and provides direct advice and support to the Office of the Superintendent.

“With over twenty years’ experience in administrative and regulatory law, Daniel is a great asset to the Department” said Superintendent Salazar.

Daniel has previously served as Medical Board Prosecutor, and as a Special Assistant Attorney General with the Office of the State Engineer and the Interstate Stream Commission, and in the Civil Division of the New Mexico Attorney General’s Office.

Daniel graduated from Cornell University in 1994 with a B.S. in economics, and received his J.D. degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo.

“I look forward to ensuring New Mexicans receive a fair and prompt administrative process and receive quality care and services from qualified professionals” Daniel stated.
